THE TSUBASA CHESS CAPTAIN

WITH GARRY KASPAROV!

Pitch

Finishing second in the Kanto tournament, the ISS team joins Kaoru Momono's training camp in the heart of the mountains, in order to perfect their training for the draft tournament which could open the doors to the national championship.

During this stay full of surprises, our friends will discover and apprehend new notions for them in order to improve their concentration and progress in chess. This training course will also be the occasion to reinforce their team spirit by sharing strong moments together.

At the same time, Garry Kasparov is to travel to Asia to observe the local selections, which could prove to be quite surprising. He is not the only one interested in Asia, a mysterious character obsessed with artificial intelligence starts to reveal his game...

Tsukasa MORI

Blitz co-writer, also working in the advertising field.

Garry KASPAROV

Protagonist and Godfather of the manga Blitz

Born in 1963 in Baku, Azerbaijan, Soviet Union, Garry Kasparov became, at the age of 12, chess champion of the USSR's under-18 age group. Then, at the age of 17, he won the Under-20 World Chess Champion title. In 1985, at the age of 22, he gained international notoriety as the youngest World Chess Champion in history.

He defended his title five times, including a series of legendary matches against his great rival Anatoly Karpov. Kasparov broke Bobby Fischer's record in 1990 and his own record remained undefeated until 2013.

His famous matches against IBM's Deep Blue supercomputer in 1996-97 played a key role in the integration of artificial intelligence into the world of chess.

Produced between Monaco, Japan, France and the United States, BLITZ is the most international manga ever!

The Editor

Created in 2019, IWA (“the rock” in Japanese) is the publishing arm of Shibuya Productions. Its first title, Blitz, is a shonen manga exploring the elite world of chess.

With its chosen subject matter, Shibuya Productions attracted the attention of one of the greatest players of all time, Mr. Gary Kasparov, who now supervises and patrons the series.

Blitz’s realization was made possible by the close collaboration between Monaco, Japan, and the US, whose teams came together to produce a novel work guided by Japanese manga production techniques.

The project success was marked by the more than 10 000 copies already sold and counting in the French market alone. In Japan, the manga is offered by the celebrated Shonen Jump.
